GUEST SPEAKER
JIM TALENT

Senator Jim Talent is a Bipartisan Policy Center Senior Fellow who specializes in issues related to defense and national security. Starting public service in 1984, he represented Missouri in both the U.S. House and Senate. Since leaving the Senate in 2007, Talent has continued to work on national defense issues, joining the Heritage Foundation as a Distinguished Fellow specializing in military affairs and conservative solutions to poverty. Talent regularly writes and speaks on the subject of national defense. He frequently briefs committees and members of Congress, regularly contributes to National Review Online and appears weekly on the Hugh Hewitt show to discuss issues relating to the military and national security.
